Atlas Copco publishes pro forma figures for the new business area structure

Stockholm, Sweden, July 1, 2011: As of today, Atlas Copco has four business areas instead of three. Pro forma figures, showing the company's financial development based on the new structure, have been published on www.atlascopco.com/ir.

Atlas Copco will report under the new structure as of the third quarter 2011. The quarterly report on July 18 will include pro forma second-quarter figures for the four business areas.

Atlas Copco is an industrial group with world-leading positions in compressors, expanders and air treatment systems, construction and mining equipment, power tools and assembly systems. With innovative products and services, Atlas Copco delivers solutions for sustainable productivity. The company was founded in 1873, is based in Stockholm, Sweden, and has a global reach spanning more than 170 countries. In 2010, Atlas Copco had 33 000 employees and revenues of BSEK 70 (BEUR 7.3).
