

Atlas Copco's Capital Markets Day, November 14, 2017

Stockholm, Sweden, September 19, 2017: Atlas Copco, a leading provider of sustainable productivity solutions, invites investors, analysts, financial media and other key stakeholders to its annual Capital Markets Day on November 14, 2017, in Stockholm Sweden.

The purpose of the Capital Markets Day is to give an update on the strategy and development of the Atlas Copco Group and its worldwide operations. This time the Capital Markets Day will be held close to Atlas Copco's Group Center in Sickla / Stockholm, Sweden. The day will give participants a more in-depth understanding of the activities in the Industrial Technique, Vacuum Technique and Mining and Rock Excavation Technique business areas, as well as an update on the proposed split of the company.

Participating from Atlas Copco will be Mats Rahmström, President and CEO, Hans Ola Meyer, CFO, Business Area Presidents and other members of Group Management.

Please register your participation no later than October 31 at www.atlascopcogroup.com/CMD2017, where you will also find the program and further information. Please observe that the number of participants is limited.
