

Atlas Copco has acquired a distributor of compressors in North Carolina in the US

Nacka, Sweden, June 14, 2021: Atlas Copco has acquired the operating assets of Compressed Air Systems, Inc. (CAS), a distributor of compressors located in North Carolina in the US.

CAS is a privately owned company and has 30 employees. The company is located in Salisbury, North Carolina.

“CAS has a strong service business and a very knowledgeable team”, said Vagner Rego, Business Area President Compressor Technique. “North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia are areas with good growth potential and the acquisition will enable us to reach our goal to get closer to customers”.

The purchase price is not material relative to Atlas Copco’s market capitalization and is not disclosed.

The company will become part of the service division within the Compressor Technique Business Area.
