

Atlas Copco has acquired a distributor of compressors in New Mexico, USA

Nacka, Sweden, October 4: Atlas Copco has acquired the operating assets of the compressor business of Mesa Equipment & Supply Company (Mesa).

Mesa is located in Albuquerque, New Mexico, USA, and 19 employees will join Atlas Copco. The company sells oil-free and oil injected compressors, and offers parts and service, across a broad range of customer segments.

“Mesa has built a strong sales and service presence in the area,” said Vagner Rego, Business Area President Compressor Technique. “This acquisition is in line with our strategy to grow our geographic coverage and get closer to our customers, and also brings increased service opportunities.”

The purchase price is not disclosed.

The acquired business will become part of the Service Division within the Compressor Technique Business Area.
