

Atlas Copco has acquired a New York-based compressor distributor

Nacka, Sweden, November 11, 2022: Atlas Copco has acquired the operating assets of Northeast Compressor. Northeast Compressor sells air compressors, related equipment, and services to a broad range of industrial customers in upstate New York, USA.

Northeast Compressor, which also has a strong parts and maintenance business, was initially started in the 1980s, and has been a part of Kinequip, Inc. since the 1990s. Northeast Compressor is located in North Syracuse, New York. 6 employees will join Atlas Copco.

“Northeast Compressor has a strong parts and maintenance business,” said Vagner Rego, Business Area President Compressor Technique. “The acquisition will help us get closer to customers and grow our geographic coverage in upstate New York”

The purchase price is not disclosed.

The acquired business will become part of the Compressor Technique Business Area.
